

Becket: Here, there, everywhere

In an architectural career that covered more than 35 years before his death in 1969, Welton Becket played a dominant role in defining the cityscape of postwar Los Angeles. This map charts Becket's wide-ranging influence. For a more complete list see the Web site www.calendarlive.com/becket.

● Buildings by Welton Becket and Associates

24 buildings on UCLA campus

Dorothy Chandler Pavilion

Cinerama Dome

Capitol Records

Los Angeles Sports Arena

Mark Taper Forum

Theme Building

Sources: Los Angeles Conservancy; "Total Design"